

Unless you are planning to provide FREE telephone service to everyone there should be NO change in the NO CALL rules. I should be able to choose if I want these people to invade my home at the most unopportune times or not since I am paying for the phone service. What gives them the right to take advantage of a service that I pay for to hawk their wares? If I want something I will find the person or place I want to purchase it from but I certainly don't need every Tom, Dick and Harry calling trying to sell me things I don't want in the first place. This should be a NO BRAINER for you folks to just leave it the way it is. There mere fact that so many people signed up for this list should be a loud and clear message that people don't want to be bothered with these calls. PLEASE listen to the people and don't be swayed by the big buck businesses trying to make MORE money.
